Crooms Hill, SE10

£5,750,000

A magnificent and highly distinctive seven-bedroom, four bathroom, period residence, occupying an enviable position on one of Greenwich's most prestigious and historic roads, with wonderful views towards Greenwich Park. This substantial home offers exceptional proportions and an abundance of period character, having been carefully maintained to a high standard throughout.

Crooms Hill is often described as one of the oldest roads in London located moments from the centre of Greenwich and directly overlooks Greenwich Park. The Grange is located a short walk away from transport links: mainline trains from Greenwich train station, the DLR with easy access to Canary Wharf and the Jubilee Line and Elizabeth line, as well as buses.

Crooms Hill, SE10

Arranged over several floors, the property provides an impressive and highly versatile layout, with seven bedrooms, generous reception and entertaining spaces and extensive ancillary accommodation. The scale and flexibility of the house make it particularly well suited to modern family living, while retaining the elegance and character associated with a property of this period. The principal reception areas are beautifully proportioned, providing an impressive setting for both formal entertaining and relaxed family life. Throughout the house there is a wealth of period detail, complemented by the excellent standard of presentation and maintenance.

A particular highlight is the exceptionally generous private garden, providing a rare amount of outdoor space for such a central Greenwich location. The garden offers excellent scope for outdoor entertaining, family life and relaxation, with a wonderful sense of privacy. The property also benefits from off-street parking, an increasingly valuable feature in this highly sought-after part of Greenwich.
