2 Little Barrow Cottage

is a substantial semi detached house constructed, principally of painted brick elevations set on a natural stone plinth, under a tiled roof. The cottage was built in the 1940's. It has an attractive front facade with a cut stone and painted brick gabled entrance porch flanked by double glazed windows and with a single storey extension built of matching materials, to one side.

The cottage has recently been renovated. The accommodation now comprises an entrance hall, sitting room fitted with a wood burning stove, well fitted kitchen with fully integrated appliances, dining room with double doors leading to the rear garden with a separate utility room and cloakroom on the ground floor. On the first floor there are 3 bedrooms together with a family bathroom.

Outside there is a shared gravelled entrance leading to a parking area suitable for two vehicles together with a lawned area with flower and shrub borders. A path leads to the rear garden with a terrace immediately abutting the rear of the house with the remainder of the garden waiting to be landscaped to a purchaser's requirements. The two side boundaries are post and timber fencing with an evergreen hedge to the rear.

Location

2 Little Barrow Cottage is situated in a rural location just off the A429 (Fosseway) and located between Moreton-in-Marsh (2.5 miles) and Stow-on-the-Wold (2.5 Miles).

Moreton-in-Marsh is a well known and busy North Cotswold market town situated at the junction of the Fosseway (A429) and the Oxford-Worcester trunk road (A44). The town has a wide range of shops and amenities providing everyday needs. There is a large market every Tuesday together with two supermarkets. In addition there is a recently built hospital together with a main line Train Station with a regular service to London Paddington via Oxford and Reading.

Stow-on-the-Wold is an attractive market town with the parish church of St Edward together with a wide variety of shops and boutiques. In addition it has a good range of hostelrys and a primary school.

Cheltenham, 22 miles, is the principal commercial and cultural centre in the area and has excellent shopping facilities with most of the nationally known High Street retailers represented. It also has a wide number of hostelrys, a multiplex cinema, together with the Everyman Theatre as well as a number of annual festivals including the National Hunt, Literature, Music and Cricket festivals.
