Dundee Claver Mill Development

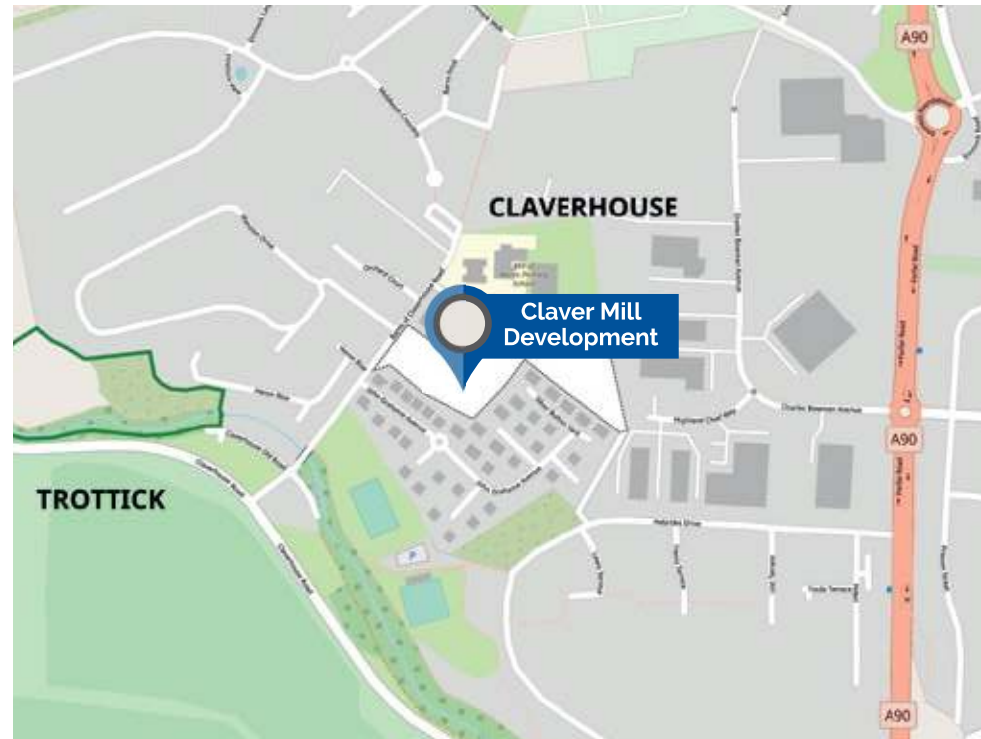

The Area

Claver Mill is located on the outskirts of Dundee just 12 minutes from the city centre. This attractive new development is situated in a popular area of Dundee, named sunniest city in Scotland, with many local attractions and an excellent pedestrianised shopping centre.

Dundee has excellent road and rail links to all areas with the Tay Road Bridge leading towards St Andrews. Dundee University, a public research University, offers a range of courses and there are also a selection of primary and secondary schools.
