Village History :

Wilstone village has changed little over the last two or three hundred years. Prior to the building of the Grand Union Canal and reservoirs in the 1790s to the south was an area marshy land known as Moors. Streams ran water mills to the north of the village known today as in local parlance as the 'millloppers'- mill hoppers for storage of corn.

The construction of canal provide new houses for the workers. Up to four pubs or ale houses, a chapel, a church, two or three shops, a forge and all the trades needed to support a village.

The Sterling Factor

Sterling's informal-style offices have modernised the traditional estate agent presence on the high street. Our clients can enjoy a relaxed atmosphere to browse through our property details and ask any questions about properties of interest before booking a viewing. This ensures we have a higher conversion rate of viewings to offers and maximises our chance to sell or let your home in a quicker timeframe.

Longer Opening Hours

Sterling phone lines are open 9am to 6pm Monday to Friday and both Saturday and Sunday inclusive of Bank Holidays.

More Properties, More Experience, Better Advice

Our expert valuers carry out high volumes of valuations every month, giving us intimate and unparalleled knowledge of property values across Hertfordshire, Buckinghamshire and Bedfordshire.

Sterling Feature Properties

New-to-market properties are highly sought-after which is why Sterling have developed Sterling Feature Properties - exclusive previews designed to ensure that properties receive maximum exposure the day they go onto the market

Sterlinghomes.co.uk

Is widely recognised as one of the best websites in the area and regarded as one of the best in the business. Every property, regardless of price, features floorplans, colour photographs, slide shows, local information, location maps, aerial views and full colour brochures.

Photography

To speed up the marketing process, Sterling have created a unique, in-house team who are trained specifically to collect information for interactive floorplans, and multiple photographs and a comprehensive write up of your home all in one visit.
