Millfield, Inchbare, By Edzell, DD9 7QJ

This is an outstanding opportunity to obtain a detached storey and half bungalow completed in 1995 to high specification and has been well maintained to provide exceptional accommodation over two floor levels. This quality home is in tasteful decorative order and benefits from double glazing, gas central heating, good sized rooms with adaptable usage and will be sold with floor coverings, security alarm, curtains, blinds, dishwasher, gas hob, double oven, extractor hood, washing machine, tumble dryer, freezer and fridge included. There are ample storage facilities throughout, including within the partly floored attic/eaves areas which have light. The accommodation comprises; 3 public rooms, breakfast kitchen, utility room, cloakroom w.c., 6 double bedrooms (2 E/S), 2 luxury bathrooms - all ideally suited to the needs of the growing/larger family. External and internal archways form part of the character of this property.

Externally the impressive pillared/gated entrance affords access to the long sweeping driveway through sheltered landscaped gardens with numerous Rhododendrons, Azaleas, mature deciduous trees, Scots Pine, shrubs, neatly manicured lawns, 2 timber pedestrian bridges over the meandering stream, external lighting and a feature centre piece fountain. Follow the gravel drive to the rear of the property and there is a detached triple garage with 3 remote controlled doors, light and power and parking for a large number of vehicles. The detached stable block is close by and has an automatic roller door, 2 horse boxes, tack room, water supply and a large floored hay loft. This building may have other uses subject to obtaining appropriate planning permission etc. To the side is a useful clothes drying area and potting shed. The 3 inter-connecting pony paddocks (one of which has access to fresh water from the stream) are ideal for those with an equestrian interest.

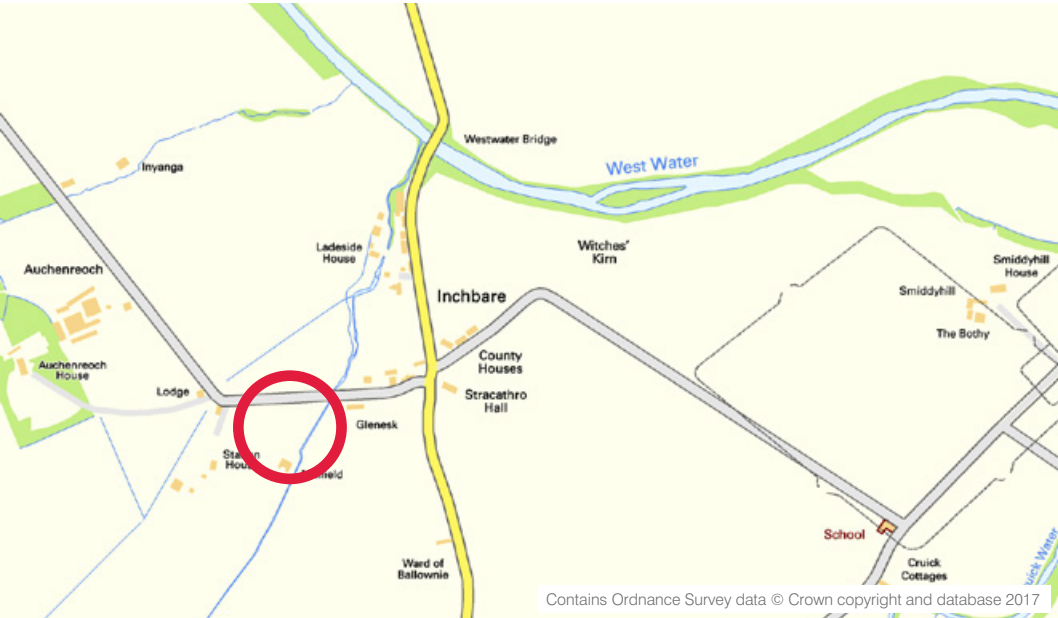

Millfield is located on the edge of Inchbare and takes full advantage of the pleasant views available across surrounding countryside including the hills surrounding Glen Esk. The A90 dual carriageway is only 1 mile away and provides easy access to surrounding towns, villages and the cities of Dundee and Aberdeen. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the high standard of finishings and the setting of the subjects on offer.
