INTRODUCTION

A BEAUTIFULLY RESTORED FORMER COACH HOUSE!!

Situated in a popular area of Blackburn, close to award winning schools, amenities and network links, stands this charming and characterful four bedroomed home. Converted into a breath-taking dwelling by its current occupants, the property stood originally as a coach house and boasts enviable high ceilings, spacious rooms and a traditional interior style! The perfect up size for a growing family looking for something just that little bit special, the property comprises briefly;

A welcoming entrance hallway, housing a centrepiece sweeping staircase and doors leading to a formal dining room with patio doors to the courtyard garden, fitted country-style kitchen, WC, ground floor double bedroom and a beautifully spacious and bright reception room with twin aspect windows over looking the courtyard garden. To the first floor, this lovely home boasts a Minstrel's gallery landing, doors leading to three further bedrooms and a family bathroom suite.

Externally, to the rear the property boasts a fully enclosed courtyard garden with water feature, planted beds and high enclosing stone walls creating privacy. Through the garden you can access a utility room which is located at the foot of an extensive detached garage. The garage can be accessed by car via the rear of the building and has a double electric door, providing huge potential to convert to a self contained annex or work shop. Viewings can be arranged by calling our Blackburn team today!
