

Haughton Road, Darlington

Offers in the region of £58,500

Ideal investment opportunity - this is a substantial property with the potential to make a lovely family home with spacious reception areas and good sized bedrooms.

Haughton Road is ideally situated for transport links, the town centre and shopping and leisure amenities as well as being virtually next door to Darlington College.

The property will need a complete refurbishment and modernisation works and comprises: entrance hallway with staircase to the first floor, large sitting room with fireplace, dining room, small kitchen with access door to the large rear yard which offers enough space for car parking.

Upstairs there are two very good sized bedrooms and a well equipped bathroom of a generous size with a white suite.

With some imagination and a clean, neutral palette this would make a really lovely family home.
