Flood Street, London, SW3

This immaculately presented seven bedroom house is arranged over five expansive floors with a private patio, a garage and off street parking.

Arranged over five floors, this elegant house offers exceptional quality throughout; there is an open plan kitchen/dining room leading directly onto the terraced garden on the ground floor, a formal reception room with high ceilings and a study/bedroom with a balcony on the first floor.

Further up the house there is a master bedroom with walk in dressing room and en suite, three further bedrooms and two bathrooms on the floors above.

The lower ground floor has a further reception room, two bedrooms both with bathrooms, a utility room, guest cloakroom and a patio and a further private entrance to the house.

Flood Street is a picturesque road boasting close proximity to the many designer shops, boutiques and eateries King's Road has to offer with a delightful stretch of the Chelsea Embankment a moments walk away.
