£3,150,000

Dexters

Bathurst Mews, London, W2

A redesigned and newly built four storey mews house, behind original facade, comprising three bedrooms, two with en-suite bathrooms and a separate third bathroom, and large first floor

Other features of the house include two private outside terraces, a superb cinema room, and large garage.

This fantastic property is located on charming Bathurst Mews, boasting one of London's last remaining stables that has been on site since 1835. The mews, with its quiet cobbled street, offers tranquil, country-inspired living in the heart of the bustling capital.

Bathurst Mews, situated on the Hyde Park Estate, in the heart of W2, benefits from the convenience of Lancaster Gate underground station, as well as the charm of Hyde Park.

Bathurst Mews is located on the Hyde Park Estate, close to Lancaster Gate underground station, yet set back from the hustle and bustle of Bayswater Road.

Close to a host of delicatessens and cafés on Bathurst Street as well as nearby Connaught Village, the area has a local feel despite its prime central London location.
