£225,000

Waterview

This beautiful 61ft Humber Keel barge has been lovingly and comprehensively refurbished and is moored on the head of Platts Eyot Island offering stunning river views in this tranquil location.

Platts Eyot is a large island on The Thames located between Hampton and Sunbury locks.

The boat is entered via a large wheel house with seating area and panoramic views. Steps lead to an impressive open plan living space featuring a modern kitchen and breakfast bar leading to a reception area with log burner. The space is flooded with light from overhead skylights and portholes. The principal double bedroom is located in the bow and has an en-suite shower room. The second double bedroom is located aft with en-suite.

The top deck has been set up as a wonderful entertaining space, with guard rails to take in the stunning views. The engine is in full working order and there is a full catalogue of the work and costs available.

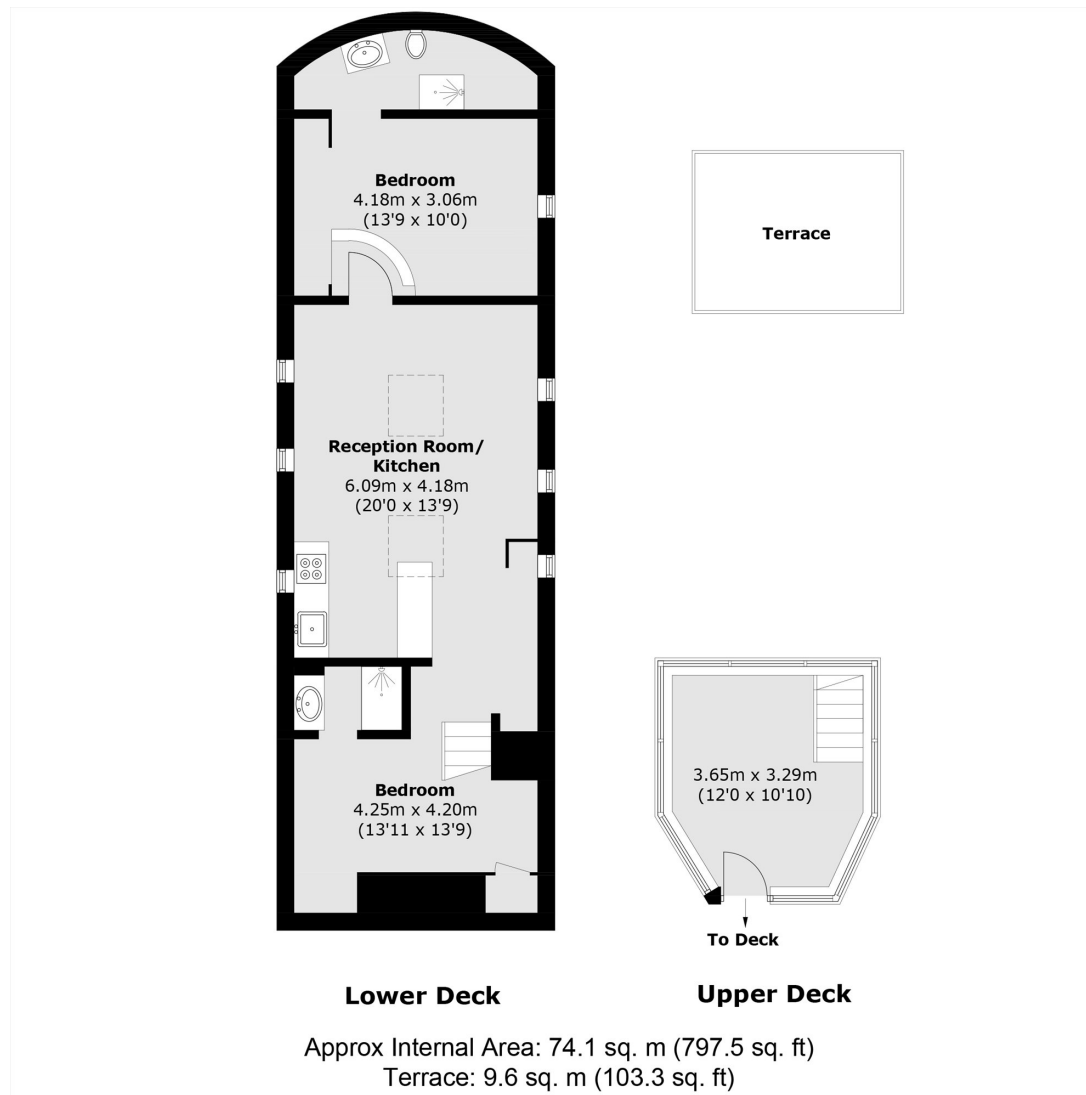

Resident's have a designated car park.
