

The Island, TW19
£1,300,000

Waterview

A lovely three bedroom family home on a 0.3 acre plot with amazing south west facing views over the Thames and a 65ft mooring.

The Island is a car access private island close to Wraysbury Village.

Accommodation is made up of entrance hall, leading to a beautiful large double reception room with sliding doors on both the river and non river side. Through the doors on the riverside, there is also a large terrace, which offers amazing uninterrupted views of the river. There is also a fully fitted modern kitchen, separate utility room and double bedroom with en-suite downstairs. On the first floor, the large principal suite has built-in wardrobes and an impressive en-suite, as well as a Juliet balcony overlooking the river. There is also another double bedroom with en-suite overlooking the river and a separate reception area. The property is accessed via electric gates which open onto a covered carport and workshop/storage area. There are also two further outbuildings, which have amazing scope for either an annexe or home office. Visuals incorporate virtual staging.
