Wensleydale Road, Hampton, TW12

A stunning contemporary detached family house set in a large delightful plot in this highly desirable tree lined road in the heart of Hampton Village, moments from the station.

This striking and beautifully presented house provides extensive family accommodation featuring a stunning open plan kitchen, dining and living space with exceptionally wide bi-folding doors opening to the beautiful large garden which extends to over 100ft.

The delightful, secluded garden is a particular feature of the property and is beautifully landscaped, principally laid to lawn and enjoys a sunny southerly aspect. It is ideal for summer entertaining with a large patio area directly accessed from the kitchen perfect for alfresco dining.

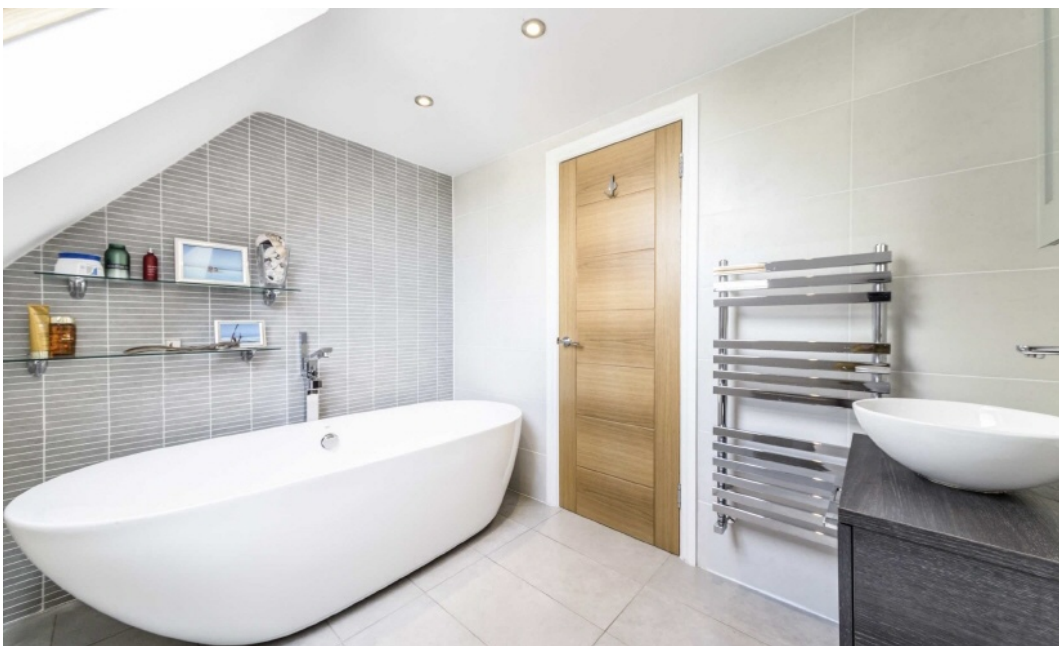

The property provides five double bedrooms and four luxury bath/shower rooms (two en suite) and also benefits from a detached brick built studio suitable as a gym or home office. There is also a large gravelled driveway offering generous off-street parking.

Wensleydale road is one of the areas most sought after streets forming part of a highly regarded residential area highly popular with families due to the excellent schools nearby and close proximity to the village, station and lovely open spaces.
