

Penrhyn Road, KT1

£910,000

Named after the technique behind the intricate floral wood carvings that grace the door arches of several amenity rooms, this selection of Whittling apartments has been designed with style and comfort, where light lingers and high specification is shown through out. This two bedroom apartment is situated on the third floor and features engineered wood flooring and bespoke wardrobes to the principal bedroom.

County Hall Kingston is within walking distance of Kingston Town Centre and Kingston railway station. With regular services to London Waterloo, and opportunities to connect to the London Underground, accessing the city is swift and straightforward.
