White City Living offers an experience like no other. Set within the new neighbourhood is a unique opportunity to live within the oriental water gardens, which flow through a landscape of hand selected trees and plants, under elegant bridges, over cascades and waterfalls. A home at the Cascades within the Water Gardens comes with access to an exclusive residents' lifestyle club of more than 30 facilities and amenities.

White City Living boasts exceptional transport links with two zone two underground stations on its door step, Bond Street and Wood Lane, approximately 15 minutes to the West End. The developments is adjacent to Westfields shopping centre, along with Imperials College London's new 23 acre campus within walking distance.
