Richmond Road, London, E8

Less than 200ft from London Fields, with its abundance of restaurants, shops and famous Saturday market.

As you enter the house there's a large double reception room with plenty of light flowing through the sash windows. Featuring original wood flooring and a working fireplace. There is also the option to close the doors to form two separate rooms.

On the upper two floors you will find five bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. All rooms have sash windows, in keeping with the age of the house.

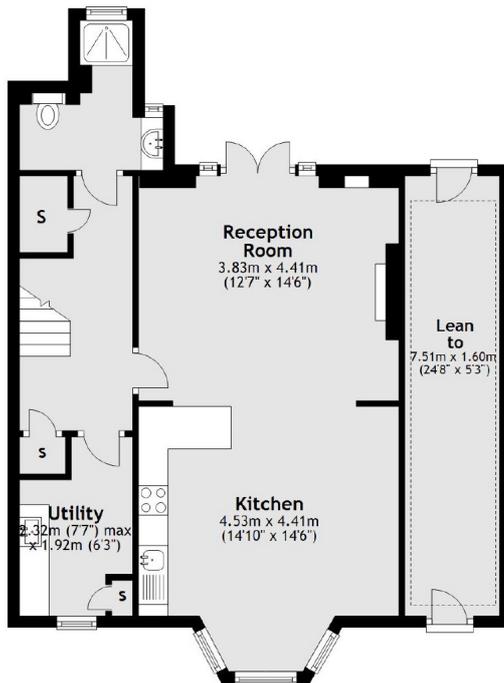

On the lower ground floor, there's a light and spacious open-plan kitchen/diner that leads onto a private patio and garden.
