Devonshire Mews South, London, W1G

This property is one of just a few apartments available on Devonshire Mews South. The generously sized galley kitchen has been fully refurbished to include Miele and Gaggenau appliances.

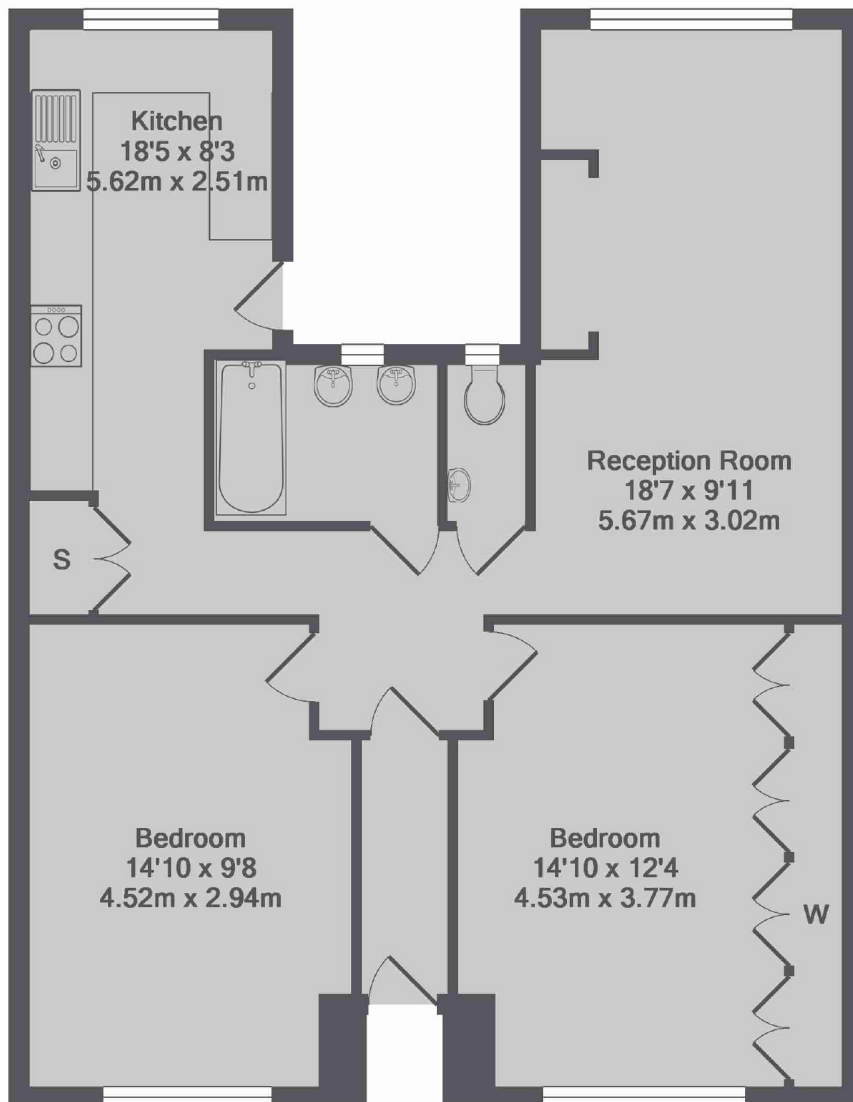

The west facing reception room provides plenty of natural light making this apartment ideal for entertaining, while the master double bedroom and second bedroom allow for flexible living space. There is a bathroom, with separate WC and deep storage cupboard just off the entrance hallway.

Devonshire Mews South is a pretty cobbled mews allowing for secure community style living in the heart of the West End, making this an ideal central London base or primary Marylebone Village residence.
