St. Lawrence Terrace, London, W10

A substantial four bedroom family home in the heart of Notting Hill. Arranged over four floors, the house benefits from high ceilings and an impressive and private terrace with fantastic

On the lower ground floor is a beautifully finished open-plan kitchen, dining area and sitting area which opens up onto a patio garden. On the raised ground floor is an extravagant double reception room with a french fireplace, bay window and attractive cornicing, as well as a study, cloakroom, and additional WC.

The beautiful hand built staircase leads to the upper floors where an indulgent master suite can be found to the front of the first floor with serene views of St Michael's vicarage. It offers plenty of built-in storage including a walk-in wardrobe, and a beautifully appointed en-suite bathroom. The second double bedroom also features considerable wardrobe space and a chic en-suite shower room.

St Lawrence Terrace is a quiet tree-lined residential street located close to Ladbroke Grove underground station and moments from the superb restaurants, shops and bars of Golborne Road and the famous Portobello Road.
