Pilgrimage Street, SE1

Apartments in this unique and stylish development rarely come to the market, offering a certain element of exclusivity. There is a genuine sense of community amongst the residents, which adds to its distinctive feel.

The main open plan living space is flooded with light due to its full ceiling and floor to ceiling windows. The kitchen is fully fitted with modern appliances and a breakfast bar, giving a sense of separation from the seating area.

Both bedrooms are generous doubles each served by a modern three piece bathroom and ample storage. There is underfloor heating throughout, a video entrance phone and lift access.
