Spectacular three bedroom townhouse which is very much the centrepiece of this brand new boutique development in Borough. The luxurious kitchen and bathrooms are finished to the highest standard and the house features one of

This small boutique development is situated in one of London's most historic locations and is entered via one of the areas many medieval alleyways. The apartments are a mix of one and two bedrooms, all of which feature either a balcony or a private roof terrace which offer incredible views over London's most iconic landmarks. All units have been interiorly designed and meticulously finished to the highest standard. The centre piece of the development is the townhouse which features a more luxurious high end finish. The development adds a modern twist to the neighbouring architecture and features secure entry, communal courtyard and bicycle storage.

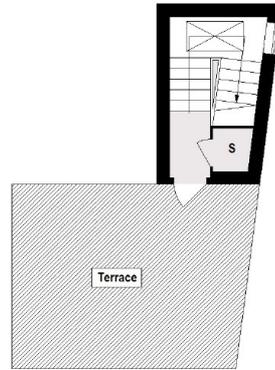

The development is incredibly central, yet set back from the hustle and bustle of the High street. Located yards away from Borough Market and London Bridge. Transport links are excellent with London Bridge, Borough and Blackfriars stations all close by.
