Carlisle Street, W1D

An immaculately presented three bedroom maisonette within this stunning Grade II Listed house in the heart of Soho. The property has been recently refurbished throughout and has access to a large private roof terrace.

This wonderful three-bedroom split level apartment offers access to a large roof terrace.

Carlisle Street has recently undergone a total transformation to meet the demands of modern day living.

Works include a complete and thorough internal renovation and rebuild, but at the same time maintaining and restoring all the original period features including detailed cornicing.

Located on the eastern side of Soho moments away from Fitzrovia. Soho is now considered one of London's prime areas with a short walking distance to the theatres, cinemas and restaurants across the West End.
