

NASSINGTON ROAD
HAMPSTEAD

The rare advantage of off-street parking contributes to a perfect family house of exceptional quality, alongside an extraordinary location with a remarkable rural feel.

A stunning six bedroom family house quietly positioned in this idyllic and highly regarded location literally yards from Hampstead Heath.

The property has been the subject of an architect designed refurbishment and extension, and offers ideal family accommodation with quality fixtures and fittings throughout. There is a combination of modern convenience alongside the Victorian splendour of the original elegant house.

The dramatic reception and entertaining areas have been designed to maximise on light and the open vista to the rear of the house via generous use of curved glass.

The flow from indoor to outdoor is seamless on three levels the large terrace becomes an extension of the main reception room and the far-reaching city skyline views from the top floor balcony are breathtaking.
