This newly refurbished period home is situated in the Mapesbury Estate. The property has four well sized bedrooms, four bathrooms, a spacious open plan reception with a modern integrated kitchen, bi-fold doors leading to a large private garden, and off street parking.

Spread over three floors, the property offers excellent family and entertainment space. The ground floor has a welcoming entrance with original floor tiles, an open plan reception, a modern integrated kitchen with all appliances, and bi-fold doors leading to a large garden. There is a further room with an en-suite shower room, a cloakroom, and storage space.

On the first floor you have two large bedrooms, one primary with an en-suite shower room, a separate shower room, and a utility room. The second floor has a further bedroom, tiled shower room, and excellent storage space. The property has been refurbished throughout, retaining many period features, including original floor tiles, a fireplace, high ceilings, and hardwood floors.

Anson Road is ideally located close to many local amenities, delis, shops, and cafés. Gladstone Park and the Mapesbury Dell is close by alongside good transport links with Willesden Green Station, Kilburn Station, and Cricklewood Thameslink nearby.
