New Cross Road, SE14

Occupying the lower and raised ground floors, the home retains charming features alongside modern finishes, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout. The spacious reception room features high ceilings, large sash windows allowing natural light to flood in, offering a perfect space to relax or entertain. There is also a large well-equipped kitchen with views over the private rear garden.

To the lower floor, two well-proportioned double bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, while a contemporary bathroom completes the layout. The split-level design adds a sense of space and separation, perfect for professional sharers, couples, or small families.

Ideally located for New Cross and New Cross Gate stations, the property offers fast and frequent links to London Bridge and Canary Wharf, in around 12 minutes, and Shoreditch in around 15 minutes. Goldsmiths University of London, local cafés, shops, and the vibrant arts scene of South East London are all within a few minutes walking distance. Educational facilities nearby are fantastic and include several brilliant Primary and secondary options, including Haberdashers Hatcham and Edmund Waller Primary schools, as well as Haberdashes Hatcham College.
