Macfarlane Road, W12

The ground floor includes a formal front reception room with a modern fireplace and bay window, a separate family den, and a large open-plan kitchen and living space to the rear with Schuco sliding doors opening onto a courtyard garden. The kitchen area also benefits from extensive storage, a guest WC, utility and separate laundry room.

The house benefits from underfloor heating throughout, air conditioning and engineered floor construction. All electrical, plumbing and drainage systems were replaced during the renovation. Upstairs there is a principal bedroom suite with built-in wardrobes and en-suite bathroom, together with additional bedrooms and bathrooms arranged across the upper floors.
