

Grosvenor Avenue, N5

£550,000

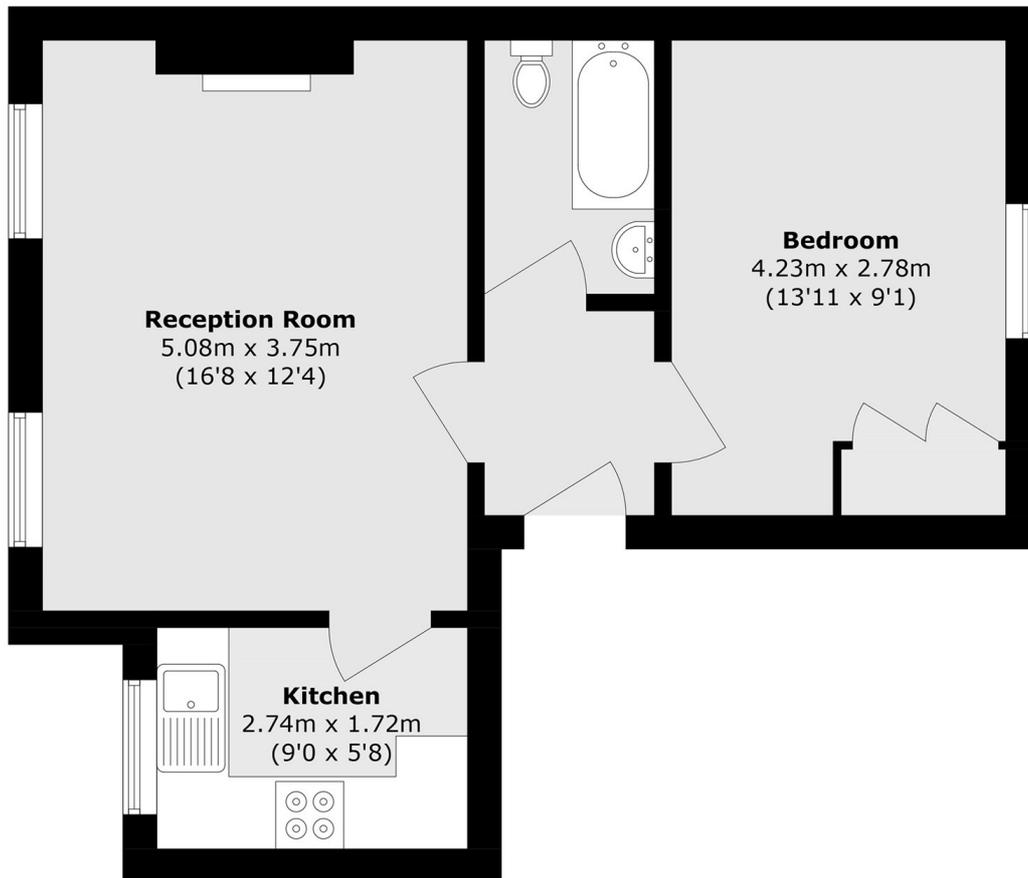

A beautifully presented, one bedroom home set on the first floor of a period conversion in Highbury. High ceilings and large sash windows allow for an abundance of natural light, whilst also creating a feeling of space and airiness. The gardens to the rear of the property have been separated to create a private space for each flat in the building.

For transport, Canonbury station (Mildmay and Windrush Lines) is just around the corner, which is one stop from Highbury and Islington station (Victoria, Great Northern, Mildmay lines). Newington Green provides access to a range of boutique coffee shops, restaurants and bus routes into The City, and Clissold Park is within easy reach for green space.
