This Victorian home is perfectly positioned for anyone that is looking to be in a central position. Perfect for transport links and school catchment with no onward chain.

There is a large double reception room with wooden flooring. This room is light and spacious with an exposed brick fireplace and plenty of space to relax and dine. The rear of this property boasts a modern kitchen/breakfast room alongside a utility and bathroom.

There are three double bedrooms on the first floor and there is a lovely garden at the rear of the property.

This home is one of the rare homes on this road that has not been extended. There is potential to extend STPP, the loft already being fully boarded with Velux windows to the rear. Plenty of scope for the future.

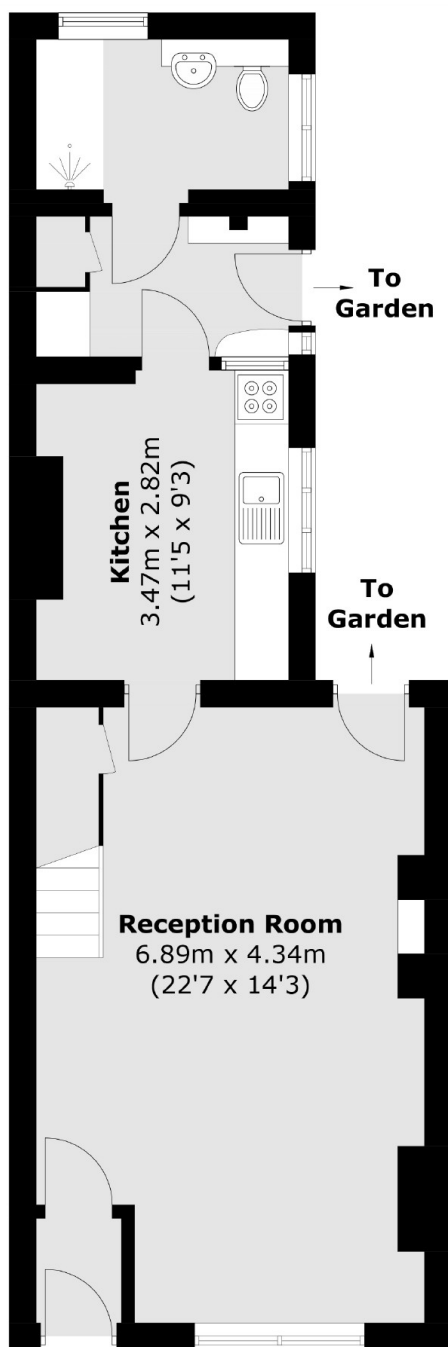

This house is situated in a fantastic location, on a residential road just off the Broad Street. Teddington station is just a short walk alongside the infamous Royal Bushy Park.
