

Highfield Road, TW7

£750,000

We are delighted to bring to the market a rare opportunity to purchase this impressive four bedroom, two bathroom period property located on a premier road tree lined road in Isleworth. The current owners have left no expense spared having undertaken extensive renovations throughout, whilst delicately preserving a wealth of period character and charm, a modern twist and high quality finishes has created this truly exceptional family home.

Located on one of Isleworth's most premier roads, Highfield Road is superbly positioned in a sought after residential area close to many prominent local schools with good amenities and parks, such as Osterley Park. Isleworth train station has a direct line to London Waterloo and there are multiple bus routes to St Margarets, Richmond, Chiswick and Ealing.

As you enter the property you're welcomed by an entrance hallway leading to a stunning bay fronted reception room with feature fireplace to the right. To the rear there is a generous kitchen/dining area that flow superbly to create this wow-factor entertaining space. We love the generous garden to the rear which is wonderfully secluded.

On the first floor there are two bright and spacious double bedrooms, an elegant four-piece family bathroom and a further bedroom/study. The loft is home to a generous principle bedroom with plenty of eaves storage space and an en suite shower room.
