

Sheen Road, TW9

£325,000

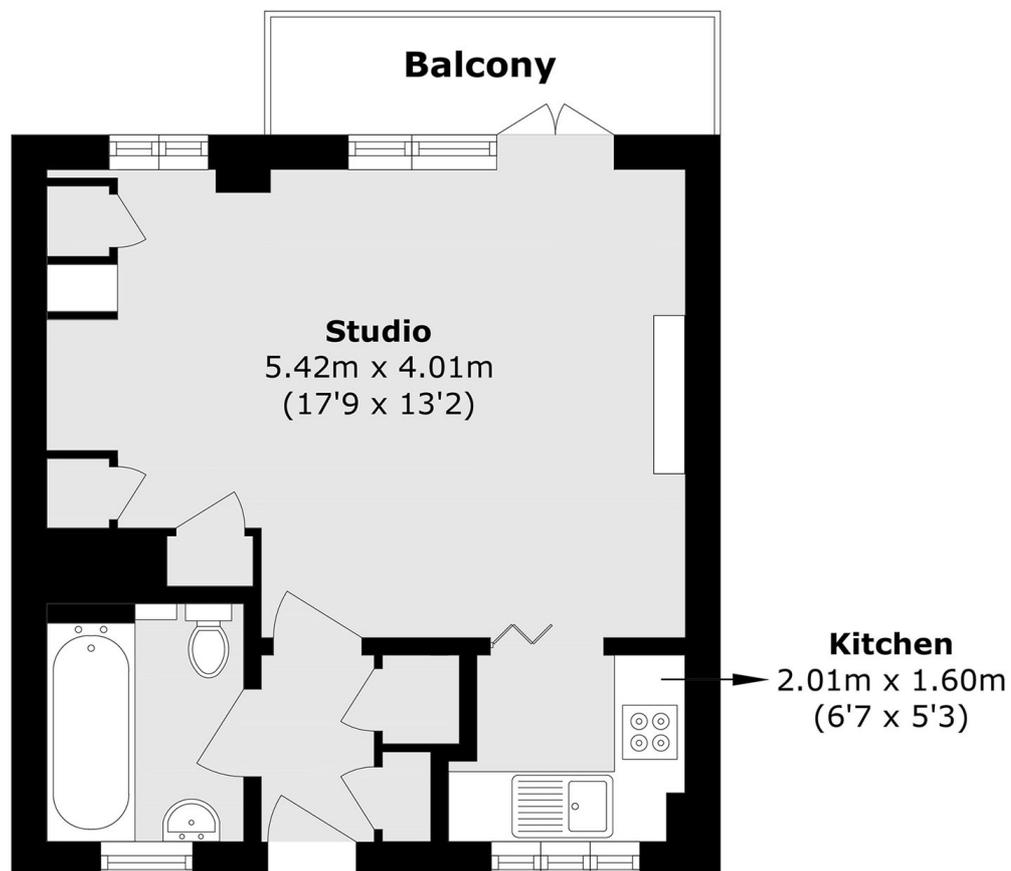

A bright top-floor studio apartment with a private balcony, ideally situated in the heart of central Richmond, just moments from the High Street and Richmond Station, providing excellent transport links into London and beyond. Lichfield Court offers well-maintained communal gardens and landscaped seating areas exclusively for residents, along with secure gated, unallocated off-street parking, including discounted EV charging points.

Lichfield Court is ideal for all that Richmond has to offer being only a few minutes walk to Richmond Park, the River Thames, and Richmond Station (District line, London Overground Service and South Western train services). Additionally, a separate private gated walkway provides residents fast pedestrian access to both Richmond Station and 'The Quadrant'.
