An imposing Grade II listed detached home, set on one of the most sought after roads in the heart of Bedford Park. It was designed in the distinctive red brick, Dutch gable style by the renowned architect Norman Shaw.

Originally built for a local artist, this house has a colourful history of creative residents. It offers splendid entertaining space, including an elegant reception room, an eat-in kitchen, and a separate study, all linked together via an impressive entrance hallway.

On the first floor, you will find the principal bedroom that features a vaulted ceiling, original beams, and dual aspect windows. Additionally, there are two further bedrooms and a separate family bathroom on this floor. The top floor consists of two guest or children's rooms.
