Forming part of this beautiful Georgian conversion is this newly refurbished apartment on the lower ground floor, with three bedrooms and three bathrooms.

There is an open-plan kitchen/reception room with modern built-in appliances, marble worktops and a kitchen island. All three bedrooms are double rooms with built-in storage and there are two en suites, a further shower room off the hallway and a utility room.

The shops, bars, restaurants and cafes of both Portman Village and Marylebone Village are only a short walk away and there are numerous transport links from Baker Street, Bond Street and Marble Arch stations.

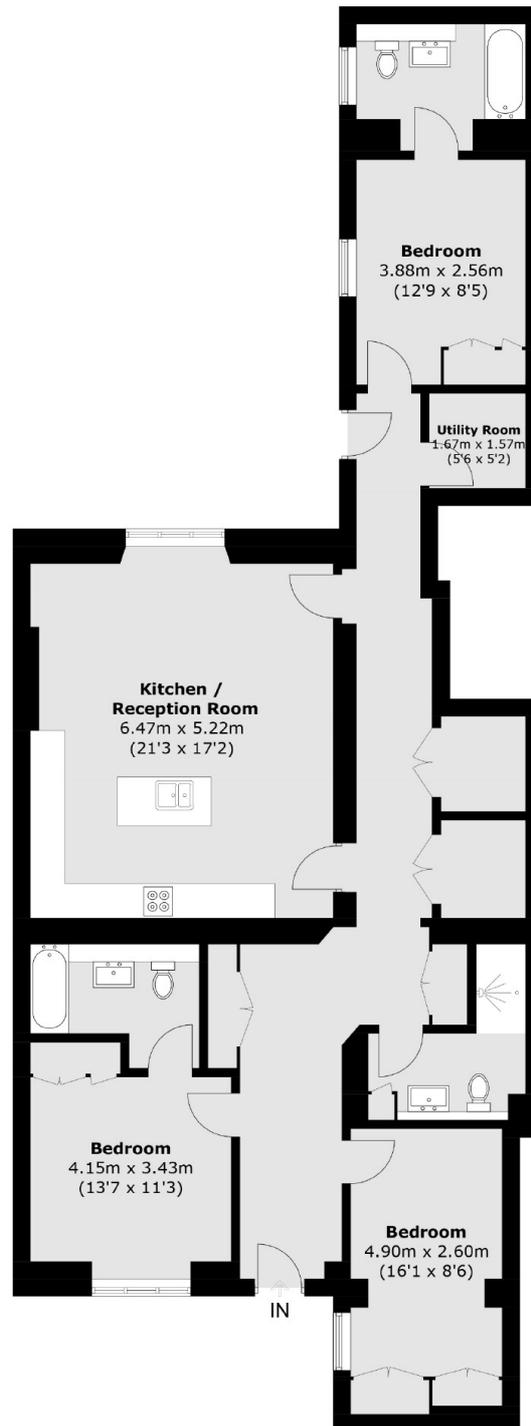

Bryanston Square is considered one of London's most desirable Garden Squares, offering resident's exclusive access of private gardens in the heart of central London.
