Courtfield Road, SW7

Set within a handsome, newly renovated period building, this beautifully presented apartment effortlessly blends classic architectural charm with modern finishes. High ceilings and large windows create a wonderful sense of light and space throughout. The principal bedroom is quietly positioned and well proportioned, with built-in wardrobes, offering ample storage. Presented in excellent condition with a new roof, this home would make an ideal first-time purchase, pied-à-terre or investment.

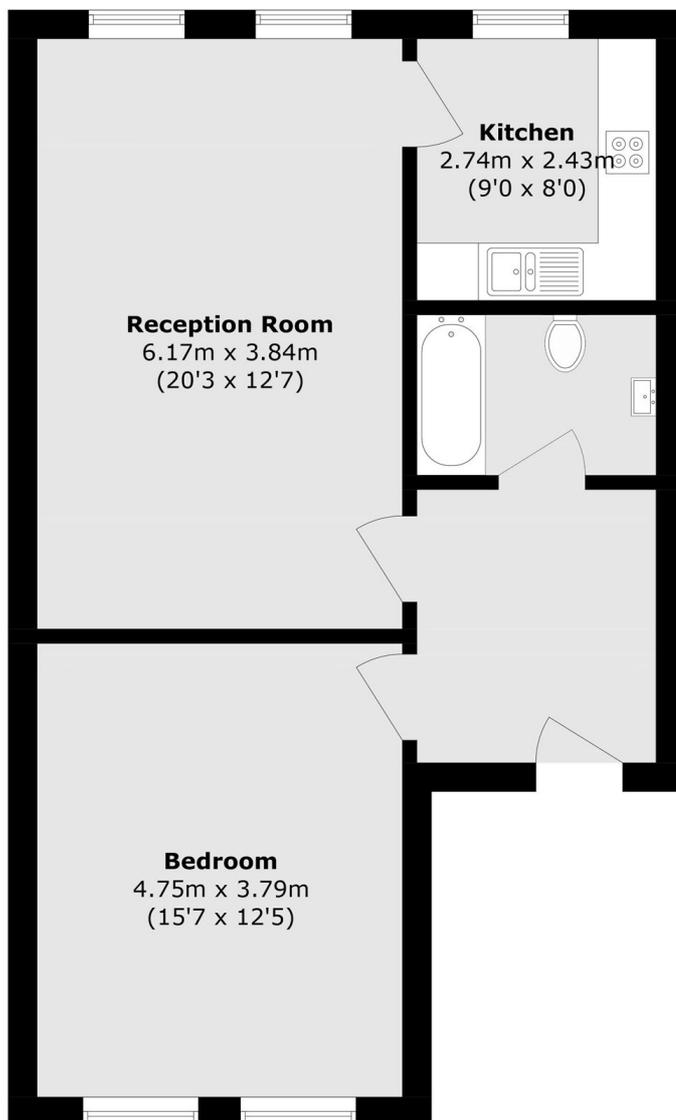

Ideally positioned just off Gloucester Road, the property is within easy walking distance of a wide range of local amenities, including shops, cafés and restaurants. Gloucester Road Underground Station is also close by, providing excellent transport links across London via the District, Circle and Piccadilly lines.
