Chevron Apartments is a beautifully converted 1950s Warehouse, comprising of 34 loft-style apartments, benefitting from some fantastic period features, exposed brickwork, wooden floors and large factory style windows.

The finish is to a very high specification, balancing the obvious period charm with contemporary design, skylights bathing the property with natural light, high quality fixtures and fittings throughout and a fully integrated modern kitchen.

The living space is a really wonderful space, occupying the full length and breadth of the lower floor, with ample room for a large dining table, a high spec kitchen with a sizeable pantry, plus the main seating area, additional storage and the wine room.

Both bedrooms are large double rooms with built-in wardrobes. There are three bathrooms, two of which are en-suite. The master bedroom also benefits from a separate study area or walk-in wardrobe, as preferred.

The development boasts an attractive residents' courtyard and pond, secure access, a double-height entrance foyer, smartly presented communal areas and a genuine community feel.
