ABOUT THE HOME

A beautiful Victorian terraced family home on a popular road in central Streatham. The house has a great layout over multiple levels with many of its original period features maintained by the current owners and has a generous open plan kitchen extension spilling out onto a beautiful south facing landscaped garden.

Wellfield Road is well located for the local amenities that Streatham has to offer including an array of bars, restaurants, supermarkets and the new Streatham Hub development. Streatham station offers a Thames Link service into the city and there are multiple bus services available.
