About the property

An end of terrace six bedroom Victorian house that is immaculately presented throughout. This stunning house has a private garden and exclusive off-street parking.

Upon entering the property, there is a spacious reception and dining room on the right, with two feature fireplaces, wooden floors and direct access to the garden. On the left is an additional reception room.

The hallway leads to the open plan kitchen, with garden access through bi-folding doors. The kitchen is finished to a high standard, complete with an AGA and an island.

The first floor has four double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Period features are preserved here, echoing the character of the ground floor. There are two bedrooms on the second floor, including the en suite, south facing principal bedroom.

Located in the Hillmarton Conservation Area, and close to Caledonian Road station (Piccadilly line).
