Ursula Street, SW11

Designed by its architect owner with meticulous attention to detail, every space has been thoughtfully designed and as such there is a flow throughout the building that you would be hard pressed to find in any neighbouring homes. On the ground floor there is a double reception room where the period features take centre stage. To the rear and built around a central south east facing courtyard garden is the kitchen, dining room and second reception. There is also side access and a utility room / wet room which is ideal for a busy household.

On the first floor there are three generous double bedrooms, including a primary suite with its own mezzanine level made up of a modern en suite and dressing room as well as a further family shower room.

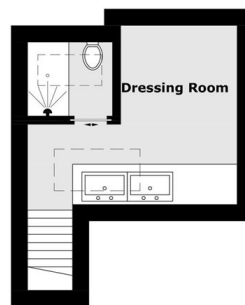

Further features of this home include air conditioning in the kitchen and reception rooms, underfloor heating in the entrance hall, utility room and wet room, plus electric underfloor heating in the ensuite and dressing room.
