Eversleigh Road, SW11

£1,000,000

This well-designed, stylishly fitted and thoughtfully extended Victorian Shaftesbury house has been the subject of a complete renovation. It is presented in immaculate condition, with a carefully considered layout that includes a superb 17' kitchen/family room. The property is offered with no onward chain.

On entering, the double reception room features a lovely period fireplace, with built-in cupboards to either side, and has been opened up to create a superb open-plan space leading into the kitchen. The kitchen has been extended to the side and rear in a modern wraparound design, incorporating a central island/breakfast bar and ample space for a dining table. French doors open from the kitchen onto a lawned rear garden with a decked patio. The upper floors are bright and well appointed, comprising three double bedrooms and two bathrooms (one en suite),

Eversleigh Road forms part of the Shaftesbury Estate and is perfectly positioned for Clapham Junction mainline station providing frequent train connections to London Waterloo. Local Bus routes can be found on Battersea Park Road and Battersea Bridge Road giving access to the West End and the City. Local shops, leisure amenities, bars and restaurants are on Battersea Park Road
