London Property Professionals

Latchmere Road, SW11

£350,000

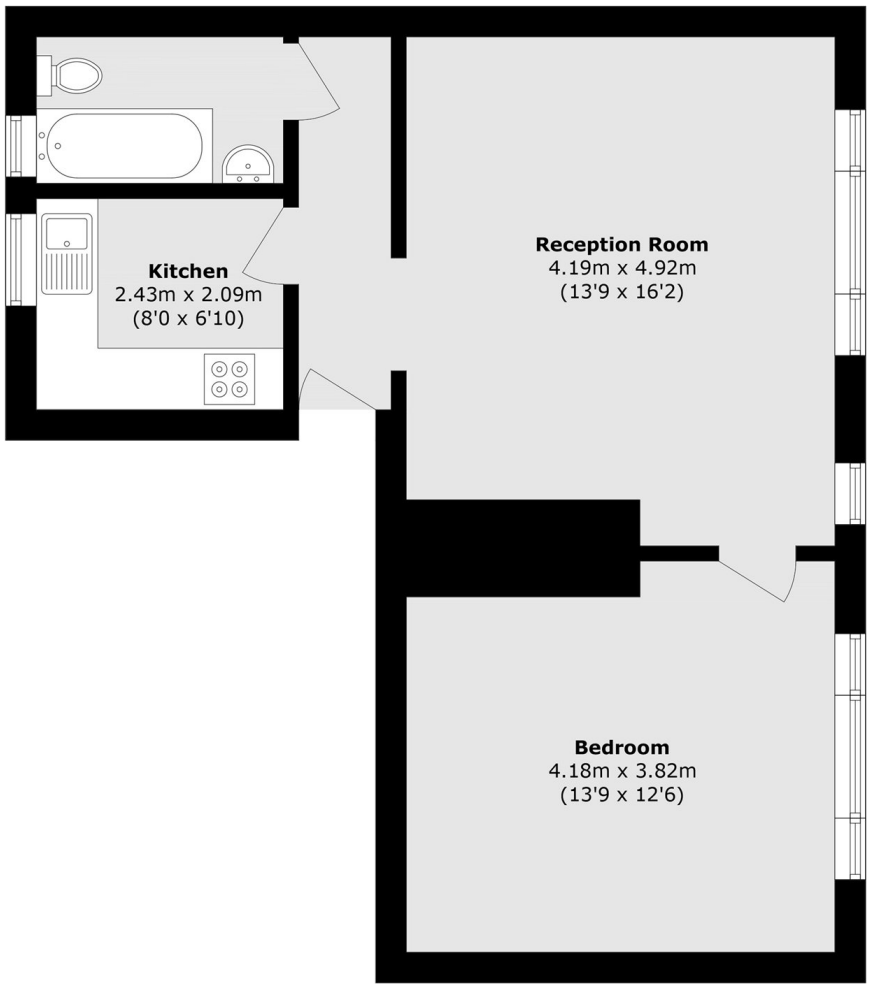

Similar in size to many two bedroom properties, this charming one bedroom flat is situated on the top floor of a purpose built block with well maintained communal gardens. With a large reception providing plenty space for a dining table and desk area, and a good size double bedroom this would make an ideal purchase for a first-time buyer. Sold with a share of freehold.

The location is ultra-convenient being conveniently positioned for the cafés, restaurants and independent shops of Battersea. Battersea Park and Clapham Common are both within easy reach with excellent transport connections providing access across central London.
