

Cranfield Road, SE4 £700,000

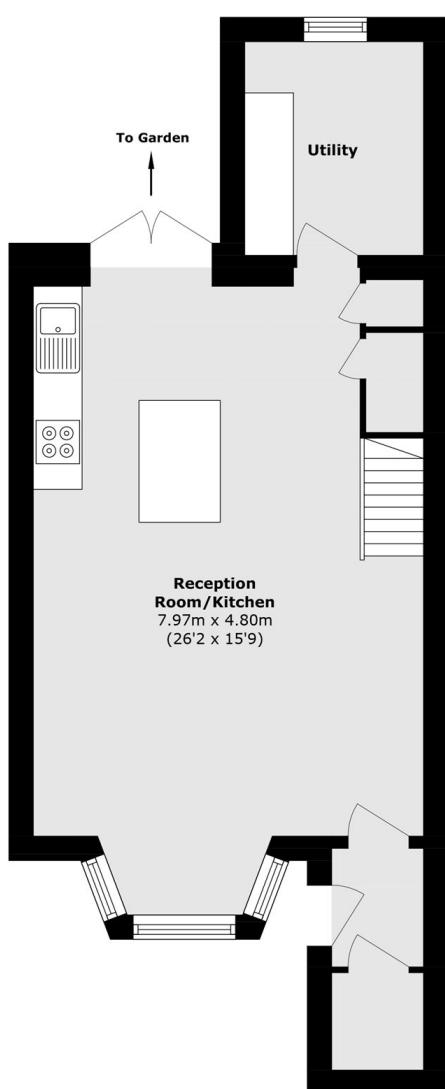

A delightful maisonette arranged over two floors of a pretty brick fronted Victorian house on one of Brockley's prime streets. The ground floor features a spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area that opens directly onto large private south-facing garden. The top floor comprises two double bedrooms, the principal with fitted storage both served by a smart four-piece bathroom suite.

Cranfield Road is a tree lined street in the Brockley Conservation area and is within easy reach of the plethora of bars, restaurants and boutique shops to be found along Brockley Road. Brockley Station (Overground) and the many bus routes to hand offers access to the City and central London.
