Blackheath Hill, SE10

Set on historic Blackheath Hill, this four-storey Victorian terrace offers over 2,100 sq ft of beautifully preserved period architecture blended with generous modern living. A rare SE10 opportunity, it features grand proportions, flexible layouts and remarkable original detailing. Inside are four spacious double bedrooms and two adaptable study/office rooms, ideal for home working or guest use. Tall sash windows bring abundant light across all floors. Period features include ornate cornicing, original fireplaces and characterful stained glass, paired with tasteful décor that respects the home's heritage while feeling contemporary and comfortable. The private rear garden provides a direct access to Dartmouth Hill with additional access to residents parking

The property further benefits from solar panels and battery storage, both of which contribute to lower energy bills. The EPC is rated D with the potential to improve to a C, and the family home is offered to the market chain-free. A viewing is highly recommended.

Situated on Blackheath Hill in SE10, this home sits between Blackheath Village and Greenwich, two of London's most desirable neighbourhoods. The wide green expanse of Blackheath is just a short walk away, while Greenwich's historic attractions including the Royal Observatory, National
