ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A stunning split level two bedroom apartment situated on one of Kennington's most sought after tree lined streets. Boasting impressive ceiling heights, the property is flooded with natural light through large sash windows, and is presented throughout in a contemporary and elegant finish. The accommodation comprises a spacious reception room featuring a charming gas fireplace, creating a warm and inviting living space. Further along the hallway are two generously sized bedrooms, a stylish family bathroom, and a bright modern kitchen offering excellent storage. The apartment also benefits from access to a substantial loft space.

Monkton Street is a quiet and characterful road within the Walcot Conservation Area, ideally positioned a short walk from both Kennington and Lambeth North Underground stations. A wide range of local amenities are close by, with convenient access to Kennington Cross.
