ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A beautifully presented one bedroom apartment set on the second floor of this popular 1930's mansion block. Refurbished to an exceptional standard, the property offers bright and spacious accommodation throughout. The reception room features high ceilings, wooden floors and lovely views over the communal gardens. The separate modern kitchen includes integrated appliances and a breakfast bar. The bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes and garden views, while a contemporary bathroom completes the property. Further advantages include excellent storage, well-maintained communal gardens, an entry phone system, secure bike storage, lift access within the block and the benefit of residents' parking.

Ideally located moments from Lambeth North Underground Station and Lambeth Bridge, this property is close to the vibrant South Bank. Excellent transport links and numerous bus routes provide easy access across London, while local shops, cafés, and restaurants are nearby. Westminster and the River Thames are also within walking distance.
