ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Arranged on the sixth floor of a highly regarded portered mansion block, this three-bedroom apartment benefits from generous lateral proportions, high ceilings and large windows. Designed to maximise space and light, the large property boasts original features, such as original wood flooring, windows and radiators. There are three double bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms as well as an addition cloakroom. The reception room is bright, spacious and a great entertaining space.

Bryanston Court is a sought-after and well-maintained mansion block which benefits from exceptional 24 hours portage services and lift access. Superbly located just moments from Marble Arch underground station (Central line), an extensive array of fashionable boutique shops and restaurants can be found locally within Portman and Marylebone village. The internationally renowned Oxford Street retail, extensive entertainment hub of the West End and fabulous green open spaces of Hyde Park are also within easy reach. In addition to March Arch station, Paddington station is close by, providing Heathrow Express, underground and National rail links.
