ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A bright top floor one bedroom apartment with skylights and a separate storage room, set within a Victorian conversion on the sought after Bassett Road.

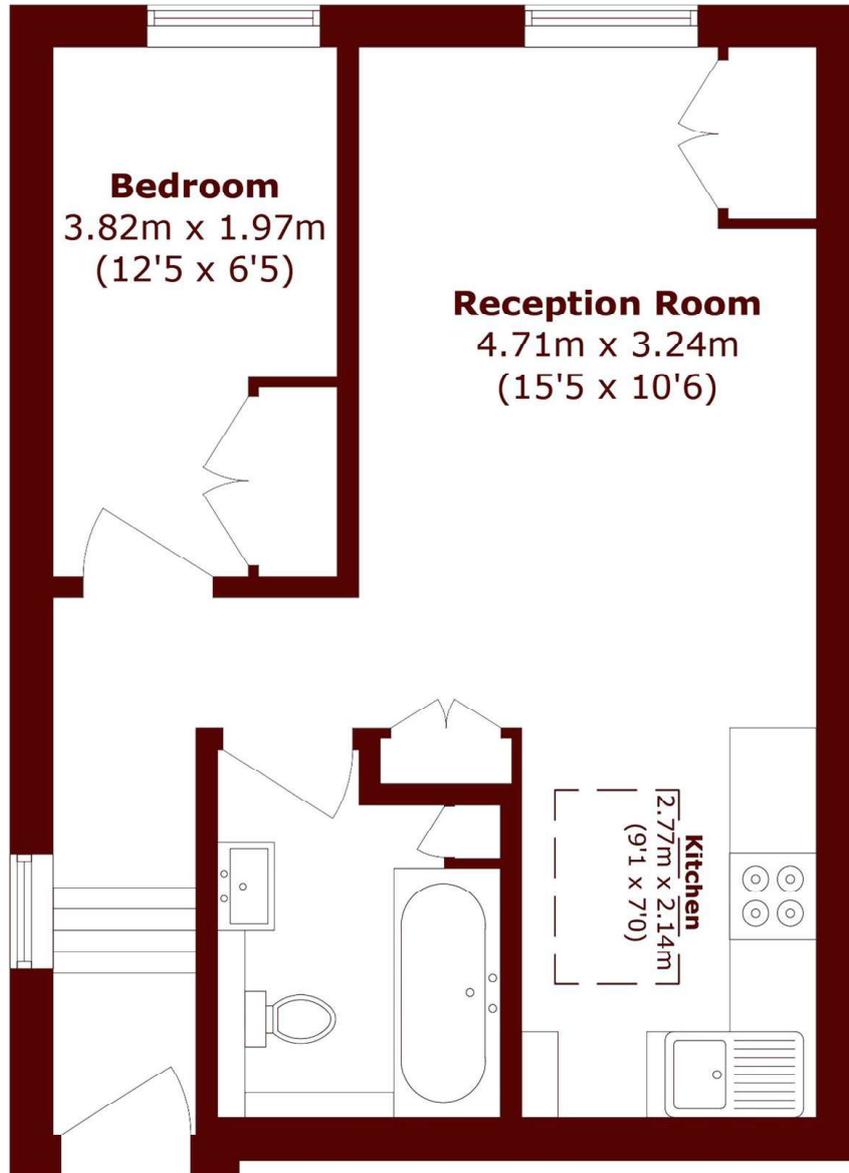

Situated on the top floor, the apartment offers bright and well-arranged accommodation with excellent natural light enhanced by skylights. The reception room is open plan to the kitchen, creating a sociable living space suited to both everyday living and entertaining.

The kitchen is well fitted with good storage and practical worktop space, while the bedroom is positioned separately and offers a comfortable double room. A bathroom completes the accommodation, with the overall layout making efficient use of the space throughout.

The property also benefits from a separate storage room, providing valuable additional space rarely found in apartments of this size.

Bassett Road is a highly regarded tree-lined street in North Kensington, ideally positioned close to the cafés, restaurants and independent shops of Ladbroke Grove and Golborne Road. Portobello Road is also within easy reach, while Ladbroke Grove and Latimer Road stations provide convenient transport links across London.
