ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A spacious one bedroom garden flat with private outdoor space, offering approximately 720 sq ft of well-proportioned accommodation on Ladbroke Grove.

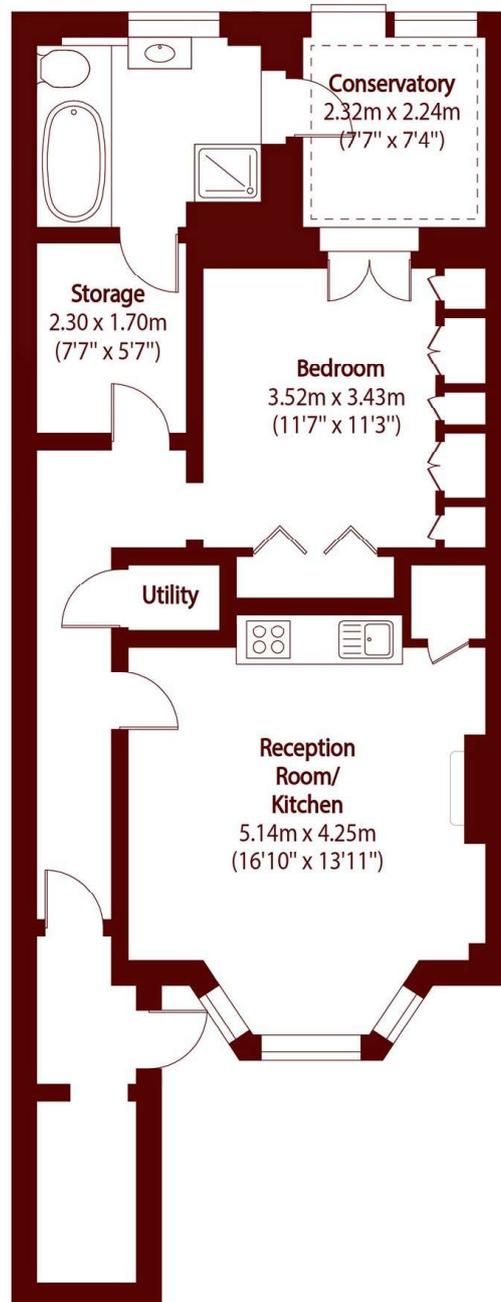

The apartment offers generous proportions throughout, with a large open plan reception and kitchen forming the heart of the home. A bay fronted reception area provides excellent natural light, complemented by period features and good ceiling height for a property of this type.

To the rear, the bedroom is well sized and benefits from built-in storage, while the bathroom is spacious and well arranged. A conservatory-style extension creates an additional versatile space, ideal as a dining area or home office, leading directly out to a private garden.

Further benefits include a separate utility area and additional storage, enhancing practicality for everyday living. Overall, the property combines character, space and private outdoor living, making it an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers or those seeking a well-located home in North Kensington.

Ladbroke Grove is ideally positioned moments from the vibrant amenities of Golborne Road and Portobello Road, with excellent transport links nearby.
